Tribute to helenka McNutt Brice

STATEMENT BY SENATOR FRANK MURKOWSKI IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE

This past weekend, the city of Fairbanks, the State of Alaska and the nation lost a very important person, helenka McNutt Brice.

helenka was one of the most delightful and effervescent people I have ever known. She was loved and respected by all who knew her. As a former Associated Press reporter and radio reporter, she was able to move from the media to the business arena by co-founding the construction firm, Brice Inc. in 1957. Not only was she able to run a profitable business, but she reared seven children in the process.

When you hear the term "political activist," helenka was the definition of that term. Anyone entering the political field knew they needed to speak with her before making any moves. Further more, her political advice was sound and solid.

Saturday, May 30, we lost a great lady. What was our loss, is heaven's gain. My deepest sympathies to the Brice family and those of us who knew and loved helenka McNutt Brice.
